

Strategic Foundations

Successes

- There is consensus that the students are inspired to do their best although this is in the absence of an agreed upon vision.
- Parents and teachers recognise that they have leadership roles within the school.

Concerns

- There is a mixed perception about what the school is trying to achieve and the future direction of the school.
- There is an absence of an agreed upon vision.
- Student leadership roles need to be further enhanced